The following information should be used by the EMT Candidate to determine their eligibility for licensure following course completion:

Reference:

California Code of Regulations, Title 22 Code 100214.3, denial or revocation of a Certificate

The Medical Director shall deny or revoke any EMT or Advanced EMT certificate if any of the following apply to the applicant:

1. Has committed any sexually related offense specified under Section 290 of the Penal Code
2. Has been convicted of murder, attempted murder, or murder for hire
3. Has been convicted of (2) or more felonies
4. Is on parole or probation for any felony
5. Has been convicted and released from incarceration for said offense during the preceding fifteen years for the crime of manslaughter or involuntary manslaughter
6. Has been convicted and released from incarceration for said offense during the preceding ten years for any offense punishable as a felony
7. Has been convicted of two or more misdemeanors within the preceding five years for any offense relating to the use, sale, possession, or transportation of narcotics or addictive or dangerous drugs.
8. Has been convicted of two or more misdemeanors within the preceding five years for any offense relating to force, threat, violence or intimidation.
9. Has been convicted within the preceding five years of any theft related misdemeanor.

Additional Conditions for Denial or Revocation of an EMT or Advanced EMT certificate if any of the following apply to the applicant:

1. Has committed any act involving fraud or intentional dishonesty for personal gain within the preceding seven years.
2. Is required to register pursuant to Section 11590 of the Health and Safety Code.

Exceptions:

- Does not apply to convictions that have been pardoned by the Governor, and shall only apply to convictions where the applicant/certificate holder was prosecuted as an adult.
- Equivalent convictions from other states shall apply to the type of offenses previously listed

Definitions:

- A "felony" or "offense punishable as a felony" refers to an offense for which the law prescribes imprisonment in the state prison as either an alternative or the sole penalty, regardless of the sentence the particular defendant received.
